Diving Bligh Water Fiji

Volivoli Beach Resort is the only Fiji dive resort visiting the world class reefs of Bligh Water. Dive sites like Mellow Yellow, Instant Replay, Mount Mutiny, E8, Pot Luck ... are absolutely world class. The resort has 33 villas, a large pool, 3 bars and the delicious Nuku Restaurant.

Diving in Bligh Water is superb all year round as it is far from land so not affected by run off and always has good viz.

Volivoli Beach Resort is the most well known resort in Fiji with divers from all over the world making repeat visits.

It has an SSI dive centre, 4 modern aluminium dive boats, nitrox and a camera room. Set on a breezy peninsular 3 hours from Nadi International transportation is easy. The reefs are beautiful.

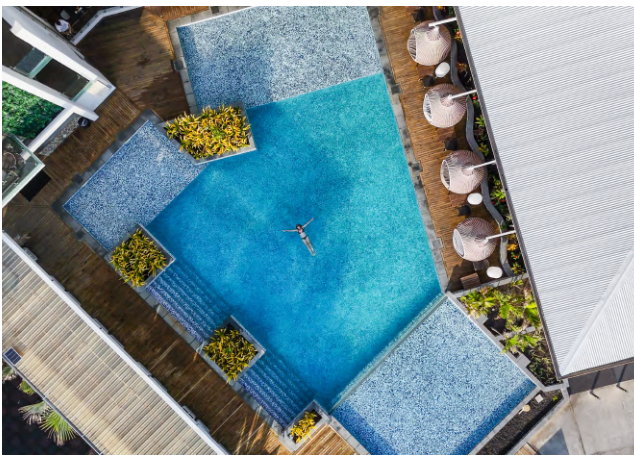

This resort is highly popular with dive clubs.

Diving in Port Moresby

The Loloata PADI dive centre is based in close proximity to a rarely dived selection of beautiful fish filled reefs and incredible soft corals which are explored via a modern aluminium dive boat. There are a selection of fascinating coral covered wrecks including the MV Pacific Gas, a 65 metre long vessel scuttled in 1986 for recreational diving and filled with fish. 'Dinah's Delight' is an absolutely breath taking site with immense pristine fan corals. Expect huge fish schools, macro and surprise pelagic. The resort is also surrounded by fish filled mangroves!

Early September Port Moresby dive conditions usually are blessed with clear waters and dry conditions with the breeze picking up in the afternoons.

Loloata is an impressive, luxurious modernist resort on a rocky private island. There are fascinating birds and wallabies to encounter. There is 24/7 armed security.

Bootless Bay Restaurant offers a large buffet breakfast and full lunch and dinner menus. Day trips to Port Moresby markets and nature parks are available and the resort has a spa, large pool and beach area, hiking, kayaks and snorkelling
